—if such they may be termed—and pointed a On his motion a Committee was appointed, said Committee to consist of the entire membership with the Mayor and City Attorney added, who shall report at next meeting of Council a mode by which the improvement can be commenced at an early date.

The subject of sidewalks was introduced by Mr. Short, who truthfully stated enough ordinances had been passed to fill a bushel basket. He wanted them all brought to the surface and placed in the hands of the Sidewalk Committee. He was tired of dilly-dallying with property owners. The matter was given over to said Committee which will meet tonight and report at next regular meeting its findings.

Mr. Eitel was authorized to have the city toolhouse in Limestone street insured.

The License Committee was instructed to look after the matter of taxing stamp agents-presumably Globe Stamps. The same will be reported at next meeting.

Ben T. Smith was re-employed as Street Commissioner on same salary as last year.

An ordinance changing and modifying the license on pool and billiard tables and bowling alleys was read. On motion the rules were suspended and the ordinance placed upon its passage. The same was adopted as read.

The application for relief by Virginia Williams was referred to the Alms Committee.

Twelve $500 bonds were authorized to be issued to take up $6,000 worth of notes in Bank. The Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee was authorized to execute the city's note for $400 for current expenses.

The Mayor and Chief of Police were authorized to purchase new chairs for CouncilChamber, the present outfit having passed their day of usefulness.

Gaebke & Co. were granted privilege of erecting coal scales at their place of business in the East End.

The crossing at Commerce and Third streets was referred to Turnpike and Railroad Committee with power to act.

An animated discussion was preciptated by a member, stating that he was informed that Captain Phister charged for bringing cattle and horses across the river on free ferriage day-County Court Day. THERE is a bill before the Senate to create a Commission of five Senators, which shall investigate and report at the next session as to the advisability of abolishing Breathitt county. It is not indicated what is to be done with Judge James Hargis, member of the Democratic State Central Committee, now in Jail at Jackson for the murder of James B. Marcum, or of Sheriff CALLAHAN or the other official murderers of the county. Perhaps if a few of these excellent citizens were "abolished," the county might stand; or its name might be changed to Goebel or Beckham.

'Hon. John D. Carroll of Henry county has been appointed Commissioner of the Court of Appeals, an office created by the present General Assembly to expedite the business of the Court. The illness of Judge Cantrill has thrown more work on the other Judges than they can dis-

To get Judge Cantrill on the Bench some expert political skullduggery had to be executed. There is a close parallel between the Cantrill injection on to the Appellate Bench and the Goebel seizure of the Governorship. Goebel introduced his infamous election law as the first step toward getting the "nomination." The first step in the securing of the Appellate judicial "nomination" for James E. Cantrill was an iniquitous gerrymander of the Fifth Appellate District.

The second step in the Goebel effort was the Redwine brigandage of the Music Hall Convention. The last step was the "contest" before the Legislature.

The second step in the Cantrill movement was the sandbagging of the Fifth Appellate District Convention at Lexington. The last is the creation of a Commissioner to do the work Cantrill is also paid for, but incapable of doing.

Had Goebel's personal enemies spared him he had made, it must be admitted, an active Governor. But James E. Cantrill was an ill man when elected, incapable, in fact, of discharging judicial duties. He has since so remained. Thus the taxpayers of Kentucky see their highest Court translated into a hospital for family ties or a refuge for worn-out politicians.

Senator Foraker of Ohio spoke Tuesday against the measure for three hours. The Senator's speech was a very brilliant argument, but Dolliver skinned Foraker and "hung his hide on the fence" as Colonel A. E. Boone used his 4,000 employes and issues a new and arbitary to remark. Senator Dolliver is a large and disorder every week. It requires $7,000,000 a tinguished looking man and resembles Colonel year to run the Government Printing Office, and Boone very much. But Senator Clapp of Min in order to cut down expenses, Mr. Stillings is nesota is a "dead ringer" for Boone.

Foraker is injuring his future political prospicts by his stand on this popular question, but as he is closely identified with all Ohio railway interests, and as his son Benson is now a Cincinnati traction magnate, the able Senator is practically considered a railway attorney and probably is the most distinguished pro-corporation lawyer in this country.

The new Railway Rate Bill and the Statehood Bill are very closely identified, and it might be stated that both involve the same old question. in re, "the Great Common People" v. the Standard Oil Company and the Railroad Corporations.

Westward the course of Empire takes its way! The admission of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory as one state, and New Mexico and Arizona as another, is now looked upon as an assured fact within the next month. It is but the natural demands of National development, Western progress and the general trend of civilization. Public and private business and enterprises are either at a stand-still or in a chaotic state under the present status. Oklahoma and the Indian Territory possess agricultural and mineral riches undreamed of. The Five Civilized Tribes of Indians alone possess in their territory 450,000 acres of the finest and most valuable coal, oil and asphalt lands on earth.

These mineral lands alone are now valued at $50,000,000. The railroads have already gobbled up 67,000 acres of these lands, under leases running for 25 years yet to come. But yesterday Congress passed a law, and the President signed it, which extends the "Tribal Relations" of these Indians indefinitely, and forever protect, them from the rapacity of the railway and other greedy corporations.

This is a great victory for the Indians and is but an act of justice on the part of Uncle Sam. Like the buffalo, the Indian is rapidly passing over the Great Divide, and utter extinction as a race awaits him.

In the big Pension Building, where 4,000 persons are employed, there are many old soldiers and sailors, or their widows, employed, many of whom are so crippled by disease or wounds as to practically render them unfit for the lightest kind of employment. Yet, every morning at 9 o'clock you can see scores of these poor invalids hobbling and nearly crawling to their work. Many of the men are very aged and feeble; some have an arm and a leg both off, some with both arms or legs off. Some of them have to be pushed to the building in wheeled chairs by attendants, and in a few cases there are women. now old and semi-helpless, who even have to be carried or assisted to their desks and other places of employment in the great building. The Government is very good to these old people, and it is no exaggeration to say that there are now on the payroll in Washington 1,500 persons, who, from senility, disease or wounds, do not actually perform 10 days work a year. The Pension Building is called, or looked upon, as a part of same has actually been built. It is to safe retreat for wornout veterans who offered be 100 feet wide and will cost $30,000 per mile

There is small chance of the passage, by this Congress, of any big Rivers and Harbors Bill. Congressman Burton, who is Chairman of this Committee in the House, and who has the steeran adequate appropriation, and therefore the 'Beautiful River" will continue to be locked by the ice and damned by the public until old Burton either dies or is defeated.

Our platform, more than ever, is: "The old Flag and an appropriation."

The House Committee on Public Buildings is understood to favor a bill carrying $12,000,000 for new structures; but it is said that the Senluxury on fat pensions amounting to several reported that the joint bill will regulate and re-

The historic "Long Bridge" over the Potomac river, a low, wooden structure built long "befo" de Wah," after over 60 years service, is now closed to all railway traffic and will henceforth be used for wagon and foot passengers. There are two new bridges spanning the river-the Pennsylvania, over which the C. and O. trains reach the city, and the magnificent "New Highway Bridge" for electric and general traffic. The latter is one of the largest and handsomest in the United States and is iron, stone and concrete throughout.

The $5,000,000 Memorial Bridge, extending from the base of Washington Monument to the base of Arlington Hill, over a mile, will be constructed in the sweet bye and bye. A splendid boulevard, from Washington to Mt. Vernon, 17 miles in length, is also under consideration and

RESULT OF THE "ROBBER TARIFF."

The foreign commerce of the United States during the first seven months of the current fiscal year amounted to $1,752,421,330, or an average of $250,000,000 per month during that period. Should it continue at this rate during the remainder of the year, the total foreign commerce for the fiscal year 1906 would exceed ing of the measure, is unfriendly to any sort of $3,000,000,000, a figure which has not been reached in any previous year in the history of our foreign trade.

County Court sale day and free ferriage brought n unusually good crowd to town yesterday. Limestone street was the scene of business activity in the trading line, with plenty of stock on the market, though not the best in the world. The thoroughbreds were shown off in Market street. Merchants reaped a fair share of business by the influx, and taken as a whole the day was profitable to a large number.

Mason Circuit Court.

The entire time of the Court yesterday was taken up with arguments in the Pearce will case. Attorney W. D. Cochran spoke two hours and fifteen minutes for the defendants, making an argument that was the subject of many congratulations on the part of those who heard it. Following for the plaintiff came Colonel John R. Allen of Lexington, whose fame as a lawyer extends beyond Kentucky, and whose presence here attracted an unusual attendance in the Courtroom, many ladies being present. It is conceded on all sides that Mr. Allen's argument was one of the most forceful heard in our Courthouse for many a day. He occupied nearly three hours, closing just in time to catch the last train for Lexington.

Untold Suffering and Constant Misery-Awful Sight From that Dreadful Complaint, Infantile Eczema - Commenced at Top of his Head and Covered Entire Body.

MOTHER PRAISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our baby had that dreadful complaint, Infantile Eczema, which afflicted him for several months, commencing at the top of his head, and at last covering his whole body. His sufferings were untold and constant misery, in fact, there was nothing we would not have done to have given him relief. The family doctor seemed to be wholly incapable of coping with the case, and after various experiments of his, which resulted in no benefit to the child, we sent to Mazon, Ill., to a druggist and got a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and a full set of the Cuticura Remedies and applied as per directions, and he began to improve immediately, and in about three or four days began to show a brighter spirit and really laughed, for the first time in a year. In about ninety the first time in a year. In about ninety days he was fully recovered, with the exception of a rough skin, which is gradually disappearing, and eventually will be replaced by a healthy one.

"Praise for the Cuticura Remedies has always been our greatest pleasure, and there is nothing too good that we could say in their favor, for they certainly saved our haby's life, for he was tainly saved our baby's life, for he was the most awful sight that I ever beheld, prior to the treatment of the Cuticura Remedies. Mrs. Maebelle Lyon, 1826 Appleton Ave., Parsons, Kan., July 18, 1905."
